My dear Sir Robert Falconer:

At Doctor's Godfrey's request, I am writing to ask you if you will send to me, at the Drexel Institute, a picture of yourself and, if possible, a precis of your speech, to be used for publication at the time of the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration.

Very truly yours,

J. A. Chapman

J. A. Chapman, Esq.,

The Drexel Institute,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Chapman:

I am sending you a photograph of myself as you request. Would you be kind enough to return it to me when you are done with it as it is the only one that we have, and I am occasionally asked for a copy.

I am sorry, however, that I cannot send you an outline of my address. I am at work upon it now, but the rush of duties connected with the opening of the session make it impossible for me to promise it before it is delivered.

Yours sincerely,

President.
